"We, the members of the Oregon Normal School Alumni Association, assembled at Portland, Oregon, December 30, 1937, wish to express our deep sympathy to the family and relatives of Mr. J. B. V. Butler, our dean, our beloved teacher, and our dear friend. We share your sorrow in the loss of one who has devoted his life to the welfare and best interests of the Oregon Normal School, its students, faculty, and alumni. To us he was not only a teacher, friend, and counselor, but a symbol of those higher ideals for which the "tradition" of the Oregon Normal School stands.

We are grieved at his going, but we thank his Creator for the privilege of having known and loved him. The influence of 'Daddy' Butler lives with us and will continue as a precious memory in the hearts of all alumni. We shall pass on to others the many things which he taught us, and so his influence will multiply forever."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The efficiency of an educational institution may be determined somewhat by the publications of the Associated Students each year. The members of the Oregon Normal School faculty are proud of the high standards of journalism as set forth in the LAMRON. The NORM, too, records much valuable history made at the institution, thus preserving many of the fine memories of student life. As the scroll of future years unrolls, students graduating this year, while perusing the pages of the NORM, will recall with pleasure the many days of happiness spent here.

The publication of the NORM is a real student achievement. For this as for any other achievement, we may say, "The end crowns the work."

J. A. Churchill
President.

DEAN OF WOMEN

Walt Disney gave to the world a memorable song "Whistle While You Work" when he produced his now famous "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs". Because the same spirit of splendid co-operation and enthusiasm for work and accomplishment has been active among all the students of the Oregon Normal School this past year, 1937-1938 has been made one of the most progressive years in the history of the institution. The "Whistle While You Work" attitude has been responsible for the splendid achievements of the year, all of which are recorded for future recollections in this excellent issue of "The Norm." Because everyone was so engaged in study and activity, there have been none of the unpleasant disciplinary problems that have had to be met in the past. This has been most gratifying to all who must administer to these embarrassing situations, and it is with a sincere appreciation that I say wholeheartedly, "Thank you."

Sincerely,
Helen C. Anderson
Dean of Women

THE FACULTY

"It is a luxury to learn; but the luxury of learning is not to be compared to the luxury of teaching." With this statement by R. D. Hitchcock as a philosophy, a rich and diversified program of practice teaching was established at the Oregon Normal School. In this system each senior student receives practical teaching experience in all the eight grades of the elementary school for approximately three hundred and sixty hours.

Miss Clara Augusta Trotter, Director of Training, ably unifies the work of the supervising staff with that of the student teachers in the three training schools located at Monmouth, Independence, and Rickreall. To inspire prospective teachers in professional ethics, practical experience, and personal achievement is her sincere contribution to the Oregon Normal School. She is competently assisted in this task by nineteen supervisors of teaching, six supervisors of special subjects, and four department supervisors.

Since 1934 when Dr. Harry W. Rockwell made his survey of the school for the American Association of Teachers' Colleges, a notable improvement in faculty preparation has been made. Ninety-six percent of the faculty now have a Master's Degree or higher, in comparison with the thirty-five percent in 1934. With a group of leaders such as these, the students of Oregon Normal cannot but develop a capacity and appreciation for teaching.

President..... HUGH HASSELL
 Vice President..... BETTY HAFENBRACK
 Secretary-Treasurer..... PAULINE CHRISTEN

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS

Arthur Evanson, June McGinnis, Robert Montgomery Shirley Wiegel

With these class officers and with Miss Mingus, Mrs. Thornton, and Miss Buck faculty advisers to guide them, in their last year of active student participation, the seniors feel that they have enjoyed an especially eventful year.

After challenging the Juniors in the annual song contest, they found that the competition was keen but with the entire class behind Helen and Ben Brandon, the song they so ably composed was a "winner".

After the song contest everyone attended the Senior Nautical dance. Both Juniors and Seniors "Got on the Boat" and made a grand success of a shipshape affair. The clever decorations made the Recreation Hall look like the deck of the S.S.ONS.

With the invaluable assistance of the faculty the Senior Class feel that they have completed two of the happiest years of their lives, and to the Senior class of next year bequeath best wishes for an eventful 1939.

When Art Evanson, who represented the seniors, challenged the juniors to a song contest, he drew a response that was full of spirit and determination. A committee, of which Martha Blair was chairman, went to work immediately on the presentation of the rousing fight song which Rudy Rada and Harley Morris ably composed. Although the Seniors won the contest, the Junior song was well-written and cleverly presented.

One of the most outstanding social events of the year was the Junior get-together which was given in the form of a "Let's go Slumming" dance on January 15. There was an extensive advertising campaign, led by Ed Miller, which lasted for a week; signs were painted on the streets and sidewalks, and suspended from buildings, advertising the "Slum party" and inviting both Juniors and Seniors to attend. The decorations were attractive, making the Recreation Hall look like a part of the district on the "other side of the tracks". The dance was such a success, that it is rumored a college in northern California has copied the plan closely.

The present Junior class is said to be one of the peppiest ever to attend Oregon Normal School. Much of its energetic inspiration is accredited to the thirteen girls who assisted the yell leaders, Alice and Kay Foster, in cheering at basketball games and in leading pep rallies.

The members of the present Junior class are well aware of the standards of their predecessors, and, when their time arrives to take over the responsibilities which come with being Seniors, they will try to be efficient and capable workers, always respecting the traditions set up by the classes which have come before.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

President..... KENNETH LUNDAY
 Vice-President..... ARNOLD TURNBULL
 Secretary..... JEAN QUALL

To write a review of the past year would bring back many fond memories and pleasant associations. Through the able guidance of the faculty and the wholehearted co-operation of the students, the Associated Students have enjoyed a year of unusual activity. Although this may not go down in the archives of the institution as the most outstanding year, certainly the members have made strides in achieving the ultimate aim of every student body.

To everyone who has co-operated so diligently in the various activities I wish to extend a sincere word of thanks. Each one of you is deserving of recognition for having given your time and energy for the welfare of the Student Body. I hope that the satisfaction you experienced in doing your part may compensate, in a small way, for the service rendered.

Two short years have flown rapidly and the time has come to say adieu. Good-bye and good luck to each one of you and may our paths cross often.

The Student Council, as the governing head of the Student Body Association, deals with all vital problems concerning any student or group of students. The specific duties of the council consist of general supervision of all affairs, properties, and activities of the Associated Students; the passing upon the awarding of athletic letters; the managing and supervising of student funds; the adoption of an annual budget.

The drive to make the year book publication possible received much support from the council. The Student Body fund was increased because of the plan of the Student Council to contact personally members of the student body and explain the benefits derived from purchasing a student body ticket.

The membership of the Council is composed of four students elected from each class, the executive officers of the Student Body, and two faculty advisers. To Coach Cox and Mr. Dewey, the Council wishes to extend its thanks for their help and advice, and also to Mr. Stebbins, Business Manager of the Oregon Normal School, who has given much time and effort to aid the council in providing effective student government.

THE ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

President..... BETTY LOU WILLIAMS
Vice-President..... GEORGIA BRACKEN
Secretary-Treasurer..... KAREEN DUNTON

The Associated Women Students is an organization of all women students who are members of the Associated Student Body of the Oregon Normal School, and has as its purpose the furthering of activities for women on the campus and the improvement of student relations. This year has been a very active one for the Association. At the beginning of the fall quarter AWS, assisted by the girls of Staff and Key, were hostesses to all the women on the campus at a tea and fashion show at Jessica Todd Hall. This event set a standard which every other undertaking has tried to equal. During the winter term it was decided that efforts should be concentrated on creating and contributing to a fund for the furnishing of the new Student Room. To that end a candy counter was established and has been in daily operation since. To supplement the rapidly growing fund, the girls sponsored a successful popcorn sale, and we venture to say that the mention of that event now makes a strong sensory appeal, for Campbell Hall became filled with the delicious aroma as can only be created by the popping of corn.

April eighth will long be remembered for the production of "Main Street Revue", which resulted in a grand swelling of the Student Room fund. And who reads this without recalling Martha Blair and the "A door-ing" Bettie Wilson? And we could go on enumerating other accomplishments of the organization but the conclusion would be the same, that 1937-1938 has been a most successful and happy year.

THE ASSOCIATED MEN STUDENTS

President..... LINDEN LUNDAY
Vice-President..... DICK GRONQUIST
Secretary-Treasurer..... BEN LEUTHE

Theh Associated Men Students was organized during the winter term and adopted for its primary purpose the fostering and support of student body activities and the promotion of ONS athletics.

Ellis A. Stebbins, business manager, and Al Cox, ONS athletic mentor, were chosen as advisers for the group and have contributed much to the organization.

In accordance with custom, the entire personnel gave an evening's entertainment, an all men's vaudeville during the spring term.

New officers will be elected from the junior class at the end of this school year so that the organization may become a permanent force in the achievements of Oregon Normal School.

THE NORM

Editor..... RUTH YOUNG
 Business Manager..... WILLIAM SMITH
 Assistant Editor..... ESTHER BRACKEN
 Assistant Manager..... ERVIN MEAD
 Advertising Manager..... HARVEY MORRIS

The 1938 NORM is truly a student publication the general purpose of which is to show an accurate and comprehensive account of student activities during the year.

This year's annual was organized on a slightly different basis from that used in the past. Early in the school year a General Finance Committee was appointed by the Student Council the duty of which was to conceive of a plausible method of raising funds to finance the book. Plans were formulated to conduct a pre-publication sales campaign in which NORM subscriptions were sold to students and faculty at $1.50 down payment, the remaining price of $1.50 to be due upon receipt of the book. In response to this drive conducted by Junior and Senior salesmen under the supervision of Ruth Young and Jake Koenig, the minimum number of 300 down payments was exceeded by approximately 30 sales.

With this financial backing in evidence a competent student staff was chosen by Editor Ruth Young and Business Manager Bill Smith.

A faculty advisory council was also chosen, with Miss Mingus as Chairman, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Erickson, Mr. Stanbrough, and Mr. Stebbins. Through the co-operation of the administration, faculty, and student body the 1938 NORM has been published.

LAMRON

Editor..... VIRGINIA HINZ
Business Manager..... GERALD NEWTON

The pulse of Oregon Normal School is found in its newspaper, the Lamron, which is a bi-weekly publication. This sheet reports to everyone the activities of students on the campus, and also of progress made in the three student training schools.

Working under the editor, Virginia Hinz, is a staff of able journalists. The plan used in the division of work is that of allowing each department editor to assign stories to his assistants, and then to see that these are handed in within the time appointed. Because of the co-operative spirit shown by staff members, this method has functioned surprisingly well.

Ronald Foos, in charge of the news department, with the help of his willing reporters, kept everyone well informed upon campus doings. Society write-ups were made interesting by Betty Hafenbrack and her assistants, and Mary Fossatti and Gene Langley saw that everyone was aware of the ONS athletics. Events occurring in other schools were reported in Jen Swire's exchange column.

Without the success obtained by Gerald Newton's business staff—Lewis Clark, Assistant Manager; Arlene Bubolz, Advertising Manager, and Georgia Bracken, Circulation Manager—the Lamron would become a financial burden to the Student Body.

Faculty advisers, Miss Helen Anderson, Miss Edna Mingus, and Dr. J. N. Carls, have given much of their time to assist in publishing this informative paper.

ALL PARENTS' WEEK-END

JEANNETTE SWIRE, Chairman

The First Annual All Parents' Week-End sponsored by the Associated Students of the Oregon Normal School and held on April 23 and 24, 1938, will long be remembered by all the students and the many parents who attended. Following registration, all parents met in the auditorium of Campbell Hall to be welcomed by President J. A. Churchill; Kenneth Lunday, president of the Associated Students; Betty Lou Williams, president of the Associated Women Students; and members of the faculty. At two in the afternoon children from the training schools and members of the physical education classes directed by Miss Jane Potter and Mrs. Hazel Blackerby entertained in the Grove. This delightful program preceded a baseball game on Butler Field in which Al Cox's regulars played to thrill every mother and dad present. The out of doors activity of the afternoon lent anticipation to the informal dinner at Jessica Todd Hall, which preceded the Crimson "O" performance of three delightful one-act plays, but nearly everyone was ready to "call it a day" in preparation for early breakfasts with sons and daughters and the ten o'clock Morning Musical Service arranged by Mrs. Florence Hutchinson in Campbell Hall auditorium which concluded the activities of a most successful First Annual Parents' Week-End.

THE CHOIR

The Oregon Normal School Choir under the direction of Mrs. Florence Hutchinson has been an active organization on the campus during the past year. The group is limited to thirty-six voices. Members are chosen through tryouts.

The Christmas Vesper service was the main feature of the fall term. The robed choir, filing down the aisles of the darkened auditorium, carrying candles, made an impressive appearance. The large audience showed its appreciation of the religious Christmas numbers by an appropriate silence.

During the winter term a concert was given before a large assemblage in the Normal School Auditorium. This program was composed of secular and religious numbers.

The spring term program of the choir was a Sunday Musical Service given during All Parents' Week-End.

WOMEN'S CHORUS

Under the direction of Mrs. Florence Hutchinson, the women's chorus has had a very active year. The chorus, made up of a group of women students who won their places through tryouts, presented several assembly programs this year. The Christmas assembly which is presented each year by the women's chorus was very impressive and effective. Upon the stage, was a huge Christmas tree, beautifully decorated and during the entire program, different colored lights were played upon the singers, who were carolling the well-known Christmas hymns. A joint program was also presented with the Normal School choir at the close of the winter term.

JUNIOR-SENIOR SONG CONTEST

In 1937 Oregon Normal started out on a new adventure, that of a Junior-Senior song contest.

Mr. Bruce Ekman, a student at the time, originated the idea and was chairman for the first contest.

The theme for the 1937 contest was "Victory" which proved to be a great inspiration as the two classes turned out whole-heartedly. The winning senior song in 1937 was written by Bert Mills, and presentation was in form of a football game with the side lines cheering the team on to "Victory".

The theme for the second year was "Fight". This song, written by Helen and Ben Brandon, was presented in the form of a cheering section with cards forming O. N. S. A trio, and then the whole section, sang the song.

The junior song, written by Harley Morris and Rudolph Rada, was judged with a slightly lower rating than the winning senior song.

The rules of the contest are: a committee appointed by each class to choose a theme, judges to be appointed by this committee; the words and music to be original; and the words and music to be written by a member or members of the class. Each class is to present its song independent of the other class in any novel way the class chooses.

"Who dares to teach must never cease to learn."

Organizations

PHI BETA SIGMA

President..... ROBERT MONTGOMERY
 Vice-President..... KENNETH LUNDAY
 Secretary..... SHIRLEY WEIGEL
 Treasurer..... PAULINE CHRISTEN
 Advisers: MISS CLARA A. TROTTER, MISS EMMA HENKLE, DR. A. S. JENSEN

In the fall of 1932 the Delta chapter of Phi Beta Sigma, a national professional honorary, was organized at the Oregon Normal School. Since the purpose of the society is to develop professional attitudes and to further scholarship, its members are selected with these purposes in mind.

Phi Beta Sigma has been especially active this year. The "Hill Billy" dance and the St. Patrick's Day dance characterized by a unique band and clever decorations were successful in raising money to send delegates to the Idaho Normal School for the national conference in May. This conference is held each year in a different normal school in the western states.

During Educational conference, Phi Beta Sigma sponsored a dance in the new gymnasium which was attended by a large delegation of both active and national members and friends of the organization.

THETA DELTA PHI

President..... ARTHUR EVANSON
Vice-President..... ROBERT MONTGOMERY
Secretary..... NORVAL NAAS

Theta Delta Phi is an organization which recognizes scholastic achievement in the Normal School field and is the only organization of its kind to be nationally recognized. At a time when the teaching profession is being severely criticised, and when the fitness of the normal school graduate to teach is being challenged, such an organization can serve by pointing out that the normal schools of our state demand and reward a high standard of academic work.

The Beta chapter has been unusually active in the year just passed. Instead of the traditional bi-monthly meetings, President Arthur Evanston initiated a plan for weekly luncheons which has done much to vitalize and socialize the group. Two banquets have been held, one in co-operation with both honorary societies and one with Phi Beta Sigma alone. During the winter term, the club sponsored an informal "Lumberjack Party", and plans for an outing in the spring quarter were carried out.

Kenneth Lunday, District Governor, recently led a delegation to the National Convention, held this year at Ashland, Oregon. It is the wish of the organization to express here its appreciation of the part played throughout the year by its faculty members: President J. A. Churchill, Mr. J. F. Santee, Dr. V. V. Caldwell, Mr. H. E. Inlow, and Mr. Oscar Christensen. They have given much of their time and effort to the welfare of the organization. The present membership of the fraternity numbers twenty-four, nearly one fourth of the men in school. Those most recently welcomed into active membership are: Gleason Johnson, Harley Morris, Jack Boon, Irvin Meade, Arnold Turnbull, Hugh Hassell, and Geoffery Marsh. Most of these men are Juniors and it will be their privilege to carry on next year, maintaining the fraternity's tradition of campus service and leadership, and trying in their turn to devise new ways of contributing to the life of the Oregon Normal School Campus.

SIGMA EPSILON PI

President..... HELEN MALCOLM
 Vice-President..... AMY PORTER
 Secretary..... RACHEAL McLAUGHLIN
 Treasurer..... ENID GRAUL
 Warden..... BLANCHE JACKSON

Sigma Epsilon Pi, the women's honorary scholastic fraternity, was founded at the Southern Oregon Normal School in 1927. Beta chapter was installed at the Oregon Normal School in 1932.

The scholastic requirements are the highest of any organization on the campus, a minimum of 15 hours of A's and B's being necessary for membership. If more than 15 hours are carried, A's and B's must be earned in all. Active membership in the organization requires at least 12 hours of A's and B's each term.

Activities of the club include social functions during the term, as well as the formal initiation banquet held some time during the opening weeks of each term. The highlight of the year is the joint banquet held during the winter with the other honorary groups.

This year has seen the addition of an unusual number of new members.

The advisers for the fraternity are: Miss Katherine Arbuthnot and Miss Laura Taylor. Miss Helen Anderson, Dean of Women, and President J. A. Churchill, are honorary members.

OMICRON PI OMEGA

President.....	FRANCES MAXWELL
Vice-President.....	HELEN McLEOD
Secretary-Treasurer.....	ISABELLA ARMITAGE
Adviser.....	MISS LAURA TAYLOR

Omicron Pi Omega is a social organization, composed of the mature women students of the Oregon Normal School, and is now completing its first year on the campus. During the winter term of 1937 a group of these students, feeling the need of an organization in which they could participate in activities for the welfare of the school, expressed their desire to President Churchill, who promptly sanctioned the idea. This desire then grew into a reality through the leadership of Mrs. Bernice Zeller and the co-operation of Miss Laura Taylor who had been interested in organizing such a group for a number of years.

Early in the spring term of 1937, Omicron Pi Omega made its formal bow to the campus when it held a tea at Jessica Todd Hall in honor of Miss Katherine Arbuthnot and Miss Maud McPherson who had just returned from their world tour. Other women faculty members and faculty wives were the guests.

Each term a tea has been held for prospective members, whose qualifications are determined by their ages and their willingness to join the group. This is followed by an initiation party and later in the term by a pot-luck supper or a formal dinner.

Besides advancing their social life, the club is endeavoring to be of service by establishing an emergency loan fund for its members. As loyal students of the Oregon Normal School, the organization is pledged to promote the growth and welfare of the school whenever an opportunity presents itself.

From the manifestation of friendly interest and co-operation of the members the permanency of this new society is assured, as it proves that a real need on the campus has been fulfilled.

STAFF AND KEY

President.....	SHIRLEY WEIGEL
Vice-President.....	BETTY HAFENBRACK
Secretary.....	JEANETTE SWIRE
Treasurer.....	GEORGIA BRACKEN

Staff and Key is a women's honorary society, which has for its purpose the promotion of friendly campus relationships and the upholding of scholastic and social standards.

Membership is made up of fifteen senior and ten junior girls chosen by the club on the basis of scholarship, friendliness, leadership, co-operation and loyalty.

During the 1937-38 school year this organization performed many services for the school. At the beginning of fall term the girls held a fashion show for the purpose of welcoming new women students and faculty members, and acquainting them with each other. Later in the term an interesting Hobo Dance was given.

Each year Staff and Key assumes the task of arranging the Winter Student Body Formal. This year the Recreation Hall was turned into an old-fashioned flower garden with an honest-to-goodness rainbow dropping into a pot of gold at one end of the floor.

During Parents' Week-End the girls held a breakfast for their mothers and fathers at the Monmouth Hotel. To better acquaint everyone with the purpose of the organization, Shirley Weigel, the president, gave a short talk on that subject.

Mrs. Florence Hutchinson, elected as adviser last year, gave much of her time in making this a very successful year for Staff and Key.

COLLECTO CO-EDS

President..... BETTY FRICK
Vice-President..... JEAN QUALL
Secretary..... DOROTHY BURCH

Collecto Co-eds, the women's service honorary, is composed of fifteen selected members and has been functioning on the Oregon Normal School campus since 1928. The idea of such an organization was conceived by former Coach Larry Wolfe. It was his idea that a group of this kind could further interest in athletics and in other student body activities more easily than could a few scattered students. Since its beginning the members have willingly rendered numerous services to the school.

At all athletic contests and school functions the Collecto Co-eds are the official ushers and, many times, the advertising committee. Their efforts were very helpful during the 1937-38 basketball and baseball season.

Last year there was a complete reorganization of the group making Collecto one of the most outstanding service clubs on the campus. A foundation was laid for the future members to build upon. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cox were then elected official advisers, and under their guidance this year has seen many successful ventures for the organization.

Throughout the coming years may Collecto Co-eds continue to serve the school with as much fervor as they have in the past.

WRITERS' CLUB

President..... HELEN BRANDON
 Vice-President..... CHARLES COLEMAN
 Secretary..... FERRIS KETCH

The Writers' Club is a new organization on the Oregon Normal campus. It came as a result of the activities of a group of students who felt the need of friendly criticism and mutual encouragement in their efforts to express themselves in creative writing. The aims of the organization are, therefore: improvement in writing ability, an increased appreciation of the writings of others, and the furthering of the interests of any of the members who may submit work for publication.

Membership in the club is open to any student who wishes to submit a manuscript, his admission depending entirely upon his merits. Essays, short stories, poetry, or drama are equally acceptable, and special committees within the club devote themselves to the different types of manuscripts.

The writers have met throughout the present school year on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, their usual place of meeting being the students' room in Campbell Hall, and the time 7:30 P.M. In March a social meeting and initiation was also held.

The Club is greatly indebted to certain members of the faculty for their friendly help and encouragement. Dean Helen Anderson is faculty adviser for the group, and others have freely given their time to the several committees. Dr. E. F. Barrows has supervised the poetry section, Dr. J. F. Santee the essay, and Miss Edna Mingus the short story.

It is the hope of those who started this activity that it may continue an active and constructive unit in the life of the campus long after they have been graduated, bringing to light unknown talent, and promoting friendly and profitable contacts within the group bound by this common interest.

LA DANZA

President..... HELEN BRANDON
Vice-President..... HELEN MALCOLM
Secretary-Treasurer..... ELAINE DODELE

La Danza, a selective dance club, is organized for the pleasure of those women on the campus who find enjoyment and interest in the dance.

This year the members were fortunate to have Mrs. Hazel Kirk Blackerby back again as an adviser, after a year's absence from school. They have also received valuable contributions from Miss Jane Potter, the new physical education instructor.

LaDanza deals with folk, tap dancing, clogging, and the modern dance. Its purpose is to foster and keep alive an interest in these rythmic activities. It recognizes the dance as a tool of education, giving an opportunity for creative expression.

In 1937-38 the outstanding work of the club has been in the preparation of a program for Parents' Week-End and for the Educational Conference. These dances were taken from the folk and clog dances of various nations. The program was colorful and attractive.

La Danza members endeavor to keep in mind L. P. Jack's statement:

"A beautiful people—a people whose bodies had been liberally educated to correspond with a liberal education of the mind, and to support it at every point; the eye trained to see beauty and to value it, the ear trained to hear harmony and to scent discord, the hand trained to fine craftsmanship, the whole man, mind and body together, trained to creative activity."

CAMPFIRE

President.....	URSULA LOOMIS
Vice-President.....	RACHEL McLAUGHLIN
Secretary-Treasurer.....	JEAN POLSON
Scribe.....	HELEN MALCOLM
Sponsor	MISS LAURA TAYLOR

The Campfire Girls of the Oregon Normal School have completed their twelfth successful year. The groups activities include: stenciling, bead work, hiking, social service, nature study, crafts, and program making.

Mrs. W. A. Barnum, the adviser, supervised the outstanding social events of the year which included: the birthday council fire at which groups from Independence, Dallas, Salem, and Corvallis were present. The climax of the evening was the awarding of honors, and Mrs. Barnum's talk. The Junior and Senior campfire group and the Boy Scouts presented a very impressive Vesper Service. The speaker of the afternoon chose as her topic for discussion, "Trails".

Theodore Harper was a distinguished guest of the Campfire group. All the co-eds of ONS were invited to this lecture, which was made very interesting by his many personal experiences of camp life.

The Campfire organization has become such an important part of the life on the campus that Campfire organization has been added to the curriculum.

INTER- NATIONAL CLUB

President..... ARTHUR EVANSON
Secretary-Treasurer..... MARY BLATCHFORD
Advisor..... DR. CARLS

The International Relations Club functions under sponsorship of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The object of this organization is to foster in the minds of college students a better informed and broader viewpoint on world affairs, to acquaint them with world peace problems.

On the Oregon Normal School campus this club supplies printed summaries of current international affairs and analysis of special problems of current concern, maintains a library of over one hundred books and pamphlets kept up to date by the Carnegie Endowment, and sponsors forum and discussion meetings. Guest speakers are brought to the campus to present particular viewpoints and special phases of current world problems. Maintaining impartiality in administration, the club seeks for its members exposure to all facts and to all possible viewpoints.

World political tensions have further stimulated the normally high interest in International Relations Club activities.

ARCHERY CLUB

President..... MARIA RAZ
 Vice-President..... BLANCHE COLVIN
 Secretary-Treasurer..... JEANNE DE LURME

The Archery Club is an organization which fosters interest in archery and is enjoyed by many students who like solitary as well as team sports.

Each year the club enters the inter-collegiate telegraphic tournament and the State and Pacific Northwest Tournaments.

Under the capable direction and supervision of Mr. A. C. Stanbrough, the club's adviser, a very successful year was enjoyed in the competitive and non-competitive field.

Membership into the club is not limited, a fact which has made possible the steady growth and interest.

POLK COUNTY

President..... LEWIS CLARK
Vive-President..... NORMAN ALLEN
Secretary-Treasurer..... HELEN ELLIOTT
Reporter..... LORENA BURCHFIELD
Adviser..... MR. CHRISTENSEN

The Polk County Club, one of the largest organizations on the campus, has had a successful year under the guidance of Mr. Christensen; and the leadership of Arne Jensen, president in the fall term; and Lewis Clark, president in winter and spring terms.

In addition to semi-monthly meetings and entertainments the group has been active in many ways. During the fall term the club assisted in sponsoring the all-school Halloween party and will be remembered for the stunt called "The Operation". A Medicine Show was the scene of their assembly program which was one of the most original of the year. For their spring term assembly program the group secured Miss Muriel Kaster's dancing class from Salem.

LANE-COOS DOUGLAS COUNTY CLUB

President.....	HOMER PARKS
Vice-President.....	ALTA BROOKS
Secretary-Treasurer.....	PEARL LENGELE

At the beginning of the new school year of 1937-38, the Coos, Douglas, Lane County Group was reorganized under the leadership of Miss Laura Taylor, faculty adviser, with twelve old members to welcome twenty new students.

The group started its activities for the year with a pot-luck fellowship supper in Mexican style. Later in the fall it played an important part in making the Halloween Party a howling success. To the Polk County group, though, must go the credit for the "howling" part of that very enjoyable affair.

In the Winter Term, "Coos-Douglas-Lane" in its Friday night social hour sponsorship carried out a "Treasure Island" theme with pirates, treasure hunt, and treasure reward to add to the collection of pleasant campus memories.

Because of unavoidable conflicts the plans for a delightful Valentine Day assembly program had to be abandoned. As the Norm goes to press, the group is scheduled to make its last appearance in an assembly program on May 16th.

Although listed among the smaller county groups, "Coos-Douglas-Lane" may point with pride to the calibre of its membership, for it is well represented in the various organizations on the campus: in Archery Club, La Danza, Order of the "O", Collecto-Coeds, Camp Fire, Chorus and Choir, Crimson "O" Players, Writers' Club, Lamron Staff, International Club, Omricon Pi Omega, Phi Beta Sigma, Sigma Epsilon Pi, Theta Delta Phi, Staff and Key, and the Student Council.

WEST HOUSE

President..... LINDEN LUNDAY
WAYNE ADAMS (Winter Term)
JACK BOONE (Spring Term)
Secretary..... BILL RAYMOND

For two years West House has provided the most modern living quarters for men in Monmouth. This year, 1938, under the wise direction of Miss Swenson and the student-management of Kenneth Lunday, it is housing nineteen students. The house provides a place for friends, parents, and alumni to stay during their visits to the campus. During the winter term sixteen faculty members were entertained at dinner.

The house group, Kappa Tau, has provided house members with a pleasant social organization. Two house dinners and two exchange dinners were given by Kappa Tau in fall and winter terms.

West House, played an active part in all intra-mural sports.

Under the guidance of Miss Hilda Swenson, Jessica Todd Hall has again enjoyed a successful year.

The dormitory with its ivy-covered walls and picturesque grounds presents an impressive picture to all observers. At the hall, one of the loveliest dormitories in the northwest, there prevails a simple and home-like atmosphere.

Outstanding social events during the year are the faculty dinners, the formals, the dessert dances, and the firesides.

Arnold Arms, since the year 1928, has been one of the largest organized houses for women on the Oregon Normal campus. Mrs. Roy Jones has managed the Arms and acted as house mother for the past eight years. It has been her effort to make the Arms as homelike and as congenial for the girls as possible.

During the past year the girls have been active in the social life of the campus. They have given a faculty dinner, two formals, and two exchange dinners with West House, besides taking an active part in the sports program of the campus.

ATHLETICS

The enthusiasm and loyal support of the student body, the faculty, and the townspeople have helped to make this year one of the most successful ones in the athletic history of Oregon Normal School.

The men who played on the teams have been willing workers and capable performers. Beside these essential qualities the teams have had an unusually fine co-operative spirit and have made a record of which Oregon Normal can be proud.

President..... RICHARD GRONQUIST
Vice-President..... RALPH MOHLER
Secretary..... LLOYD LEWIS

Varsity "O", an outstanding men's athletic organization composed of ONS lettermen, has just completed another successful year, of campus activity. The Varsity "O" started out by helping to make the men's vaudeville a success with their famous "Style Show" featuring "Tiger" McGlinn as the star model. Following this the club sponsored a dance which was held on Friday, May 13. On account of the date it was decided that the dance would be called "The Superstition Dance", and it proved to be one of the 'extra special' campus affairs.

A stag party sponsored by Varsity "O" and held for the members of the club, was a gala affair.

Coach Alfred Cox, faculty adviser, helped the club to complete its most successful year in promotion of campus activities.

BASKETBALL

The 1938 edition of the Oregon Normal School basketball team turned out to be one of the best ever to represent the Crimson and Gray. With sixteen victories and six defeats, the Wolves' were the Champs of the smaller colleges in the state of Oregon. Under the leadership of Al Cox, this team defeated, at least once, every team it met with the exception of Valpraiso University of Valpraiso, Indiana.

The outlook at the beginning of the season was rather dull with five lettermen returning and only one regular from the 1937 aggregation. The lettermen at the beginning of the season were: Ralph Mohler, Glenn Peterson, Richard Gronquist, Lloyd Lewis, and Jason Miller.

Newcomers to the Wolves proved to be valuable assets. Bill Baughman, the lanky 6'5" boy, proved to be a valuable pivot man. Henry Mascal, John Piert, Anthol Riney, Chester Hogan, Bud Gronquist, Merle Huston, and Darrol Davis filled in at the various positions in outstanding style when called upon.

The Wolves copped the first Intercollegiate Tournament of the State of Oregon by defeating Mt. Angel, 44 to 35, SONS, 42 to 28, and Willamette, 44 to 35 and thereby had the right to represent Oregon in the National Intercollegiate Tournament held at Kansas City, Missouri.

At Kansas City the Wolves drew the strong Valpraiso University team of Valpraiso, Indiana in the National Tournament and were defeated 57-48.

By winning the Oregon Intercollegiate Tournament the Wolves also annexed the Normal School Championship of Oregon.

FOOTBALL

The Oregon Normal Wolves had a successful season, winning five, tying two, and losing two of the games played. This team is regarded as one of the best which has upheld the honor of the Normal School. Opening the season early in the year against Pacific University, the Wolves, in the closing seconds of the game ran the Pacific men for a score, winning 6-0.

The Wolves then tangled with the strong Oregon Frosh eleven and, on a sea of mud at the Indep Hop Bowl, tied the Frosh 6-6. Cagle, stellar lineman for the Wolves blocked an Oregon punt and fell on it for the Wolves' score. McGlinn, Lunday, and Howard shone for the Wolves in the backfield while Saleeby and Walberg were outstanding in the line.

The Wolves took Linfield College into camp with a score of 13-0. Playing under the lights at Independence the Teachers opened up and played some real football. Nygren, a newcomer sparked the backfield with Cagle outstanding in the line. Dedication the new turf field at Dallas the Wolves tied the Oregon State Rooks. This game was hard fought. "Mike" Grancich proved himself the lasting power on the team, carrying the ball 60 yards on six successive plays for the Wolves' score and then dropping back to boot the pigskin between the goal posts for the extra point which gave the Wolves the tie.

Albany College was next defeated, 21-26, with the reserves of ONS doing most of the playing. At Ashland, Oregon Normal School became state champion for Normal Schools by defeating SONS 6-0.

Journeying to Tacoma the Wolves were defeated 6-0 by the Pacific Lutherans and on Armistic Day were taken into camp by the Ellensburg Teachers College eleven to a tune of 9-7.

In the final game of the year, St. Martins were defeated by the Wolves 6-0, with Grancich passing to Lunday for 50 yards and "Tiger" McGlenn taking honors for ball carrying.

At the annual football banquet, held at the end of the playing season Kenneth Lunday was voted the most valuable player's award.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Intramural sports become increasingly popular each year at Oregon Normal School. They fulfill a need for activity and furnish an opportunity for all men to gain skill in and further knowledge of playing games. This provides pleasure to the individual, and is an asset to those who become teachers.

Much enthusiasm was developed in the fall term over a football game between the juniors and seniors. In spite of the predictions of loyal supporters concerning the outcome of the game, the score after sixty minutes of strenuous play was 0-0.

Handball is one of the newer sports at Oregon Normal School, and proved to be very popular among both men and women.

Four teams played a round robin tournament in basketball. Harold Lewis' Barnstormers and Ridgley Hobbs' Swishers played a hotly contested final game, the outcome of which made the Barnstormers champions.

A table tennis tournament revealed several skillful players, and aroused much interest and enjoyment. Marshall Eyestone won the championship in a final game with Gerald Newton.

Archery, under the leadership of Mr. Stanbrough, has become a popular sport at O. N. S., and is enjoyed by many students.

Track, tennis, badminton, horseshoes, and softball make up the activities of spring term.

This year for the first time, the Oregon Intercollegiate Conference is sponsoring a Sports Carnival for which Reed College is acting as host. Intramural champions in all sports will represent Oregon Normal School at this carnival. It is the plan of the conference that a sports carnival will be an annual feature. This has created wider interest among students in the intramural program and promises to widen and strengthen its activities.

TRACK

Track coach Christensen found himself confronted with two difficult problems this year: no track lettermen were in school, and bad weather prevented early practice. However, a track team of considerable ability has been developed.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

"ORDER OF O"

President..... JUNE MCGINNIS
 Vice-President..... GLADYS GREENLEE
 Secretary-Treasurer..... RAMONA LUETHE

The Order of "O" is an athletic honorary for women students who have been awarded at least 250 points; which may be gained in basketball, volleyball, baseball, tennis, hiking, folk dancing, or in any other sport activity.

The purpose of the organization is to encourage good sportsmanship and to aid in the sponsoring of athletic enterprises on the campus.

Besides athletics, the Order of "O" has taken an interested lead in Play Days and social activities.

When a member has earned 500 points, she is awarded a white sweater with a crimson and gray letter. The girls who will be wearing their sweaters by the end of spring term are: June McGinnis, Nancy Kistler, Mary Fossatti, Kathryn Smith, Violet Skarberg, Betty Lou Williams, Olive York, Ramona Leuthe, and Gladys Greenlee.

During spring term, formal initiation of seventeen new members was held in the dancing room of the Physical Education Hall under the direction of June McGinnis, president; Mrs. Hazel Blackerby, and Miss Jane Potter, advisers.

WAA has as its aim to promote an interest and skill in the physical and social sports among women. It has hoped to present such a varied program of activities, competitive and non-competitive, that every girl on the campus may find some phase in which she is particularly interested.

Membership into WAA is open to all women who have earned at least 50 points in any one sport and who have maintained a grade average of C.

This organization is affiliated with the National Athletic Federation, which permits that a member can transfer her points to any other school belonging to this federation.

Points toward a sweater may be earned in basketball, volleyball, baseball, hiking, and tennis. From these sports, house and class teams are formed, making the athletic schedule complete and active.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball championship was won by the Juniors. Lady Luck smiled upon the underclassmen and as a result they walked off with the honors.

The Juniors, with their consistent play of head-work in combination with clever passes and plays, were worthy recipients of the championship honor. Both teams displayed excellent sportsmanship and competitive skill, for which they should be commended.

Senior Team: Forwards Myrtle Darrin, Mary Fossatti, Violet Skarberg.
Guards: Helen Elliott, Nancy Kistler, Kathryn Smith, Betty Lou Williams, June McGinnis.

Junior Team: Forwards Maria Raz, Jeanne De Lurme, Virginia Layton, Georgia Post.
Guards: Pat Young, Martha Blair, Frances Farley, Esther Bracken.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

Because of the great turnout in class volleyball, the class selection was a difficult proposition this year.

Both teams were very evenly matched in competitive ability and sportsmanship. Because of this large number of girls who came out, three teams were formed from each class.

Senior Team: June McGinnis, Nancy Kistler, Violet Skarberg, Mary Fosatti, Florence Wimber, Helen Rumbaugh, Velve Violette, Kathryn Smith, Ramona Lueth, Louise Grafe.

Features

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

The 1938 Educational Conference had for its theme "Education for a Broader Vision". This conference was unique in several respects in that:

1. It attracted the largest attendance of any conference ever held at ONS.
2. It presented an unusually fine program. The headliners were President Rufus B. von KleinSmid of the University of Southern California. Dr. von KleinSmid is one of the greatest orators of the whole nation. Professor Paul R. Hanna of Stanford University furnished the educational feature of the conference. Dr. Hanna is one of the keenest thinkers in the field of education today.
3. The presence of Mrs. Hazel H. Gorham from Tokyo, Japan, conferred honor upon the whole conference as well as upon the art section where a lecture and a demonstration of art of flower arrangement were given.
4. The music section, as well as the sections for various groups of teachers, was especially successful and helpful for the many who attended.
5. The luncheons, banquets, and other social affairs were particularly pleasant.
6. The exhibits—books, art, flowers, Training School—were excellently organized and very well attended.

The whole conference from the Crimson "O" plays Friday night, the all-fraternity breakfast Saturday morning, to the final ceremony at the end of the Phi Beta Sigma dance Saturday night, was one that will linger long in the memory of the friends of ONS.

ON TO KANSAS CITY

Following the annexing of the Oregon Intercollegiate Basketball Championship by the ONS quintet, by virtue of a 43-35 win over Willamette, there appeared such a bubble of enthusiasm and school spirit as has never before occurred in the usually tranquil and peace-loving student body of ONS.

The winner of the intercollegiate tournament was to represent Oregon in the National Collegiate Tournament to be held in Kansas City, Missouri. The amount received at the tournament for the defraying of the expenses of special Oregon's representative was short a few dollars of the amount needed. A special student body meeting was hurriedly called and after many suggestions were thrashed over and rejected, the plan of holding an old-fashioned pie social was suggested. It was to be in the new gymnasium, preceded by a free basketball game. After committees were appointed to work on the plan all thought of academic work was quickly forgotten for the day. In the afternoon a serpentine was formed and a march begun through the various classrooms on the campus with the ever increasing line of students chanting the adopted slogan of "Kansas City or Bust". A students' holiday was declared, and a cavalcade of cars was soon organized bearing huge signs saying "On to Kansas City", "Kansas City or Bust", etc. These twenty-five or thirty cars packed with students with streamers flying and horns honking, started a rally which took them through towns of Monmouth, Independence, and Dallas to advertise the pie social and free basketball game for the following evening.

The next evening after a game with St. Martins' College of Lacey, Washington, more than one hundred pies, contributed by the women of the student body and the faculty, and by numerous townspeople, were auctioned off by Professor Dewey with the aid of Willamette's Spec Keene.

The amount so badly needed was successfully raised and the ball team entrained from Salem, Oregon, Thursday Evening, March 3, for Kansas City.

Very few stops were made enroute to their destination with the exception of a six-hour stay at Denver, Colorado, for a short workout at the YMCA gymnasium. Coach Cox and his proteges arrived safely in Kansas City early Sunday morning and the next day played Valpairaso University of Valpairaso, Indiana, in the first round of play. ONS came out on the short end of the score, but only after a hard struggle were our players eliminated. All the next day and until the team left Wednesday morning, time was spent in looking over the wonders of the great Missouri metropolis and gathering numerous souvenirs. The trip back to Oregon was made over the southern route with the first lengthy stop at El Paso, Texas. While here, the travelers spent a few hours across the Rio Grande River in that famous Mexican City, Ciudad Juarez. From El Paso the team went directly to Los Angeles, California. After spending most of one day there the trip was made to San Francisco where the ride across San Francisco Bay was made by ferryboat to Oakland. The rest of the trip to Salem by train was accomplished successfully without anything of consequence happening, and eight well-pleased young fellows arrived home, loaded down with innumerable souvenirs and much to talk about, after ten days of tiresome but pleasing travel.

Mr. Skarberg: How is it, young man, that I find you hugging and kissing my daughter? How is it I ask you?

Salvador: Oh, it's great, it's great.

Virginia H.: What did the President have to say about it?

Reporter: Nothing.

Virginia H.: Very well then, write only a half column about it.

Said the skunk to the hunter with a little shake, "What a whale of a difference a few scents make."

I draw the line at kissing,
She said with firm intent.
But he was a football hero,
And over the line he went.

Mr. Erickson: I'm all played out. I couldn't match that ribbon you gave me anywhere.

Mrs. Erickson: Splendid! I just wanted to make sure no one else could buy it.

Miss Arbuthnot: What is a peninsula?

Jack Boone: A rubber neck.

Miss Arbuthnot: No, its a neck running out to sea.

Jack: Isn't that a rubber neck?

Professor: I won't begin today's lecture until the room settles down.

Voice from Rear: Go home and sleep it off.

Conoyer: Bill, how did you get that red on your lips?

Bill: That's my tag for parking too long in one place.

Why Newspapers are like Women:

They are thinner than they used to be.

There is a bold face type.

Back numbers are not in demand.

They have a great deal of influence.

Every man should have one of his own and not chase after his neighbor's.

Professor: What is causing the decline of the male?

Jean P.: The extensive use of the telephone.

Dr. Barrows: Where are fleas found?

Sullins: Search me, teacher.

Local girl choosing a riding habit fits quite nicely into a size 27 but buys 28 explaining that she feared the former would not fit on the horse.

When a certain Sigma Epsilon Pi was asked, "Is your faith unblemished?" she replied, "Yeth, I uthe cold cream."

Dodds: I want to buy a fountain pen for my wife.

Clerk: Surprise?

Dodds: I'll say so. She's expecting an automobile.

Bessie C. I like this dog, but I think his legs are too short.

Mildred O.: Too short? Why they touch the ground don't they.
